Public Warming Station Extension | Jan. 7th - Jan. 13th

ANNISTON, AL -- The City of Anniston asks that everyone please be aware of freezing temperatures continuing throughout the rest of this week and into next week. In light of the weather conditions, the public warming station at the Carver Community Center (720 W 14th St, Anniston, AL 36201) has been extended until Thursday, January 13, 2022. The warming station is currently open, and it will now remain open until Thursday, January 13th, at 7:00 AM.

This warming station effort is being led by the City of Anniston's Community Task Force on Homelessness. The Anniston City Council established the Community Homelessness Task Force to provide policies, plans, and programs to facilitate and coordinate efforts among community partners to improve the response to the homeless population.

For more information on the warming station, please contact the Carver Community Center at: 256-231-7630.

If you are interested in donating meals and/or assisting in meal preparations for the warming station, please contact Ms. Diane Smith at 704-904-8774.
